Soccer has brought Africa together in many ways that politics couldn't do. Soccer has also helped fund many different things in economies and politics because it proves to be a large intake of money every time a game is held. My impression of the book was also influenced by the fact that many kids put aside school work to be star soccer players. Amazon.com: Africa United: Soccer, Passion, Politics, and ... "More than a sports book, Africa United tells how soccer keeps hope alive in across a troubled continent. It is an inspiring story of spirit, skill and doggedness in the face of hellish difficulties - in short it is the story of Africa itself" (Tim Butcher, author of Blood River)"Reading this book makes you want to pack your bags and light out for the territory, however dangerous the territory ...
