Dynamics and Creative ... Born to rebel: Birth order, family dynamics, and creative lives. At the heart of this . . . inquiry into human development is a fundamental insight: that the personalities of siblings vary because they adopt different strategies in the universal quest for parental favor. Frank J. Sulloway's most important finding is that the eldest children identify with parents and authority, and support the status quo, whereas younger children rebel against it. Born to rebel: Birth order, family dynamics, and creative ... In Born to Rebel, Sulloway focuses on birth order. He contends that personality is shaped by a Darwinian struggle among children for parental attention. Each child seeks a different niche depending on his or her order of birth.
