Joanna replied, “It reconnects people to themselves and to the web of life” (or words to that effect). Fran said, “So call it ‘the work that reconnects.’” We decided to use similar wording for the subtitle of that first edition of Coming Back to Life: “Practices to Reconnect Our Lives, Our World.” And “the Work That Reconnects” became the name Joanna and many of her colleagues have used for the Work ever since. Writing Coming Back to Life with Joanna Macy Coming Back to Life provides a much needed update and expansion of this pioneering work.

At the interface between spiritual breakthrough and social action,

Coming Back to Life is eloquent and compelling as well as being an inspiring and practical guide. The first third of the book discusses with extraordinary insight the angst of our era, and the pain, fear, guilt and inaction it has engendered; it then points forward to the way out of apathy, to "the work that reconnects". Amazon.it: Coming
