This column will change your life: don't let an asshole ... What I mean by "being an asshole" is a willingness to be disliked and/or to upset other people. As we will see, sometimes hurting someone's feelings (or just being willing to hurt someone's feelings) is a necessity, both for ourselves and also for the greater good. And I believe that if more of us were able and willing to "flip the asshole switch," the world would be a better place.
