and feelings of every sort are the seeds in your mind-garden. These wholesome and unwholesome seeds are always there, sleeping in the soil of your mind. The quality of your life depends on which kinds of seeds you water and nurture. So, for example, in a vegetable garden if you plant tomato seeds ... Tending the Garden of Your Mind Imagine your mind as a garden. Positive thoughts are the beautiful flowers that brighten your life. Negative thoughts are the ugly weeds that spread and suffocate the flowers. Tending to my garden is an ongoing process. I'm not into chemical pesticides, but my natural weed killers are yoga, meditation, inspirational reading, and hanging out with positive people. Your Garden of Thoughts:
