Even Urdu, Persian, Arabic and Punjabi language teachers accept its high status in the scheme of education. English as an International Language Essay - The College Study Or silence could be a simple case of the person having to speak in another language, and taking their time to formulate a reply. The worst thing you can do is jump in with another question to fill the void. Nordic cultures, like Asians, are ‘listening’ rather than ‘talking’, aiming for calm and order in a conversation. The meaning of silence in different cultures Clompitt (1920-94) is often overlooked in the annals of twentieth-century American poetry, but as 'A Silence' (from her last collection, A Silence Opens) shows, she deserves a wide readership. The poem considers the importance of silence in nature and in a life of religious devotion and contemplation. Paul Goodman, 'Silence'.
