Monk'S-Hood: The Third Chronicle of Brother Cadfael ... While it is certainly and definitely true that Ellis Peters' Monk's Hood does not (and will likely also never) rank as one of my favourites of the Brother Cadfael Mediaeval mystery novels, I still very much and actively do consider it one of the more important earlier books of the series (and as such to be read if not in actual order of appearance then still relatively early on, as indeed, there are in my opinion some very good reasons why Monk's Hood is the third mystery featuring Brother Cadfa Monk's Hood (Chronicles of Brother Cadfael, #3) by Ellis ... The poison contains herbs (such as monks hood) that are used by Cadfael among his healing ointments and medicines though he had no part in preparing the meal. The characters of the monks and other people associated with the abbey are well brought out, and the search for the poisoner spreads into the countryside around and across into Wales.
