Standing In The Light My Standing in the Light: My Life as a Pantheist is a walking meditation, faithful in its survey of pantheistic thought, yet grounded in its particular place and time. The book begins not with a creed, but with a map of the Nature Conservancy's Gila River Farm in southern New Mexico, where the author lives in a "little yellow house" not far from one of the few healthy rivers remaining in the American Southwest. Standing in the Light - Wikipedia I loved Standing in the Light: My Life as a Pantheist, by nature writer Sharman Apt Russell. She writes, "We walk in the Mind and Body of God." She has good insights on what it means to be part of nature—which is anything but "the peaceable kingdom!" Learning to live as part of nature is the challenge that this book addresses. Light: My Life A A Pantheist: Russell ... “Standing in the Light” by Sharman Apt Russell is a mediocre, book-length personal essay. The book is a history of pantheism told through a personal lens. Using the braided structure popularized by creative nonfiction and personal essayists, Russell weaves back and forth between the story of her own life as a naturalistic, pantheist Quaker, and the story of pantheism and its key thinkers ...
