... The House of Dead Maids is a spine-tingling masterpiece. Told as a prequel to Bronte's Wuthering Heights, the reader is introduced to a young Heathcliff through the eyes of the Tabby. While Tabby is a great character, seeing a young Heathcliff was in itself quite a treat. The House of Dead Maids is quite a unique novel. The House of Dead

"The House of Dead Maids" | 60second Book Review House of Dead Maids starts out as this wonderful, creepy, gothic ghost story, which is my absolute fav. But then it just gets a little disjointed. The young master with no name is sort of odd. The story behind the Dead Maids is a little too quick and bare bones, and the ending comes up so fast, it doesn't feel like a fully fleshed out book or ...
